Please read!!!! Important!

As most of you probably don't know, this year is the fourth year of the third quadrennial ethics cycle. As you may remember, you are required by the National Association of Realtors to take this course once in each cycle in order to retain your membership.

If you have joined and taken your online orientation since 1/1/2009, you are already covered for this and you don't need to worry about it. I will go through this week and asterisk the names of those who have already taken the course in the alphabetical membership section of the Board website.

For the rest of you, you can handle this a couple of ways. You can go online and take the course at www.realtor.org or you can take either of the ConEd classes we will be offering this year. Remember that this year is also the third year of your license cycle, so ConEd must be completed by October 31st. Our ConEd classes have been modified specifically to cover not only your licensing requirements, but also the Quadrennial Ethics requirement; this is not true of other ConEd classes.

Our classes are scheduled for Wednesday, May 2nd and Tuesday, October 9th. I will send out specifics on those classes later this week.

Remember that if you do not take the Quadrennial Ethics class, either in classroom or online, by 12/31/12, you MUST be suspended from membership; they leave me no latitude on this one.
